

Please leave the TCPA intact. It should always be the right of the consumer as to the privacy of their phone number. If a consumer has freely elected to not be contacted by telemarketing firms, then it should be as such. Please do not compromise these individual rights in the face of "big business" pressure.